- On or before December 31 of each year, owners or lessees of any registered Pinto horse, pony, or miniature stallion or PtHA listed outcross stallion must submit, with appropriate filing fee, a PtHA Stallion Breeding Report showing all mares bred to the stallion during the year. This includes mares owned by the stallion owner as well as outside mares. This report must include all breeding dates, registration numbers, owners of listed mares at time of breeding and signature of stallion owner.
- Only one calendar year is allowed per form.
- A late charge will be assessed for any Stallion Breeding Report not submitted by December 31 and this charge must be paid before the report will be accepted.
- Amended reports will be charged per each mare added or change made.
- Specify method of breeding. PS=pasture; HD=hand; AIT=Artificial Insemination with Transported Semen; AIF=Artificial Insemination with Frozen Semen; ET=Embryo Transfer.
- List exact date(s) bred. If more than one service is received by the mare using the same method, list first and last date of breeding. If pasture bred, list the date the mare was turned into the pasture and the date she was removed from the pasture.
- List all mares exposed, whether pronounced in foal or not.
